

Deuteronomy 6:4

Trinitarian: One Father

Worksheet for Sunday, May 31 2020

Draw a picture of Isaac Newton in our outside his manor watching an apple fall from an apple tree.

What two major definitions are there of the word "unity"?

The Father represents _____. The Spirit represents _____.

When and where does the book of Deuteronomy take place?

Does the Shema refer to the togetherness-unity, or singularity-unity?

Trinitarian perspective on the Shema:

God: _____ : everyone knows there is a Creator (Rom 1:19-20)

_____ : Particularity : among the "gods" there is one who is unique (1 Cor 8:4-6), reveals His name, and saves

One: _____ : this unique god is above all others and alone truly God (Isa 43:10)

Which persons of the Trinity are emphasized in:

The Old Testament?

The Gospels?

After Pentecost?

When you pray, you can pray to any Person of the Trinity. However, unless there is a particular reason to pray to the Son or Holy Spirit (and there may be many!), direct your prayers to the Heavenly Father.
